We are proud to announce our new website, www.light-resource.com. We've redesigned for a new decade with a site that corresponds with our current values and manufacturers. Come take a look!

Easier Navigation & A New Look

Our new site features many improvements and is more user & browser friendly than ever. New pages now open in the same window, no more pop-ups. Our simple design allows you to access what you are there for, fast. No need to update your bookmarks, our URL remains the same.

Products & Links

Go to our "Products and Links" page to find all of the manufacturers that we represent. Follow these links to go directly to their site and see all of the amazing product they have available. Alternatively, download our latest Line Card if you need a printable copy.

News

Click on the "News" page to see the latest in the lighting industry. We will update this page with news from our manufacturers, educational articles from industry experts and local application photos. We pledge to update this page regularly, so keep coming back.

Contact Us

The name says it all. Should you have any questions or are looking for just the right lighting solution, we're just a short phone call or e-mail away.
